Crafty Extras:

- Christopher covered the chairs with a cream craft felt. The idea is bouclé without the bulkiness as bouclé is still on trend in home interiors.
- The garden images are his very own photographs from a visit to Ashton Gardens in Lehi, Utah.
- He used textured paint to achieve the “concrete” look on the countertops.
- The French bull dogs, floor coverings, plant, cutting boards and sink accessories are from Christopher’s personal collection. Visit miniatures.com to find similar.
